England Sees No Reason for Retracting Recognition of Gen. Huerta

FRANCE AND GERMANY JUSTIFY ACTION OF U. S.

Diaz Disobeys Huerta Order to Leave Mexico—Life is Endangered

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—The attitude of England toward Mexico is causing considerable displeasure in administration circles here today. The federal officials, however, are gratified at the actions of other European nations in the Mexican situation. England still persists that it falls to see why it should not have recognized Provisional President Huerta or why it should now withdraw such recognition. The activities of Sir Lionel Carden, British representative to Mexico City, also continue to be of such nature as to threaten the actual embarrassment of the government at Washington.

The action of Germany and France in sending warships to Mexico is regarded as an admission that President Wilson's action refusing recognition to Huerta was justified.

U. S. WARNS HUERTA NOT TO HARM MADERO'S BROTHERS
WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—An urgent warning was sent by the state department to Huerta against harming Daniel and Evaristo Madero, brothers of the late president.

Denies Report
WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—A flat denial was made today of the reports that the Navy Department had countermanded the order sending four battleships to the Mediterranean and had diverted them to Mexico.

DIAS DISOBEYS HUERTA'S ORDER TO LEAVE MEXICO
VERA CRUZ, Oct. 23.—General Felix Diaz has boldly disregarded General Huerta's order to leave Mexico. The situation could not be more threatening. If Diaz persists in his refusal, it is believed another revolution will be the result. Diaz's friends are advising him to obey Huerta. They are willing to fight, but fear Huerta with the power of the government troops behind him, might act so suddenly that Diaz would lose his life.

It was in the capacity of commander-in-chief of the army that Huerta ordered Diaz aboard the gunboat Zaragoza, and under the circumstances, continued disobedience may result in the execution of Diaz. His departure from Mexico would mean the withdrawal of Diaz from the presidential contest. This he refuses to do.

Members of the Diaz party who arrived with him yesterday are all under arrest for refusing to remain in Cuba under Huerta's orders. There is not much pretense of making cases against them; they were arrested simply because they are Diaz's friends. Huerta's nominal reason for ordering General Diaz to Havana was to accompany De la Barra as a member of his staff. Diaz's excuse was the lack of funds.

Sentries were placed today over the home of Felix Diaz's brother-in-law, where he has stayed since his arrival here. Diaz was warned that if he tried to leave he would be locked in a cell immediately.

Belva Lockwood Reaches Eighty-Third Birthday

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—Friends and relatives today showered congratulations upon Mrs. Belva Lockwood, veteran champion of equal suffrage for women, on the event of her eighty-third birthday.

Mrs. Lockwood, a kindly little woman, is one of the most prominent figures at the national capital. She is the first woman who was granted the privilege of practicing before the United States Supreme Court. Years ago, Mrs. Lockwood, alone and unaided, fought her case through the courts and won her right and the right of other women to practice before the highest court in the land.

Mrs. Lockwood also holds the distinction of being the only member of her sex ever to be a candidate for President of the United States.

C. Y. Martin Buries Foundation of Late Lamented Soda Factory

Red ink and regrets—that is all that is left of the Pacific Coast Soda Co., once a child of great promise, diseased early in life and passing away before the third winter was over.

C. Y. Martin completed the funeral this morning when he finished burying over 200 tons of concrete in the ground at Aliso station. The Pacific Coast Soda Co. came and went. It came with a hurrah and went with a groan. It was a company backed heavily by local people. It was planned to have a big factory here and another at Soda Lake. A huge sheet-iron building was erected at Aliso station. It was erected, and that was nearly all. It was never operated. After the company, like a wanderer in the desert about Soda Lake, met its death for want of nourishment. In the wind-up of the affairs of the company C. Y. Martin's wrecking yard bought the Aliso building and agreed to remove from the face of the earth all traces of the soda plant that never had a bottle of soda or soda water in it.

Months ago Martin tore down the plant. He moved away everything but the concrete foundation. That he dynamited. He dug holes and let the concrete go down out of sight. Then he filled in the holes. The fills were completed today.

The Pacific Coast Soda Co. is no more. The foundation of its plant is planted. Let us forget, but go and do no more likewise.

GOING TO PAVE RUSSIA MAY DISMISS BEILIS CASE SOUTHWARD NEXT

Highway Engineer Went Over Route Below Mission Town Yesterday

SUITS TO CONDEMN WILL BE NECESSARY

State Not Yet Let Contract for Work from Santa Ana to La Habra

The state has scheduled the improvement of the state road from Santa Ana to San Diego county line for at as early a date as possible. The preliminary survey work on that section was done months ago, and further steps are now under way.

Yesterday the division engineer, W. Lewis Clark of Los Angeles, was here and with County Surveyor J. L. McBride and Supervisor Jasper Leck he made a trip along a portion of the coast line below San Juan Capistrano. The trip was made with the special purpose of observing and securing data concerning the tides, the probable damage by high tides being one matter that must be considered in locating the state road.

The state has not yet let a contract for building the highway between Santa Ana and the county line at La Habra, though bids were received nearly four weeks ago. At least, if any contract has been let no word concerning it has reached the division engineer's office in Los Angeles. County Surveyor McBride has put in a great deal of time trying to get all right-of-way matters straightened out on the road between Santa Ana and the La Habra line. The county has guaranteed to secure the right-of-way for the state. Many of the deeds have been given, but there are about twelve property owners who have declined to accept any of the offers made by the county. Against them condemnation suits will be brought within a short time. The matter is now up to the district attorney's office.

APPEALS MADE AT CONFERENCE

Reports Show M. E. Church, South, to be Growing in Numbers

Memorial Churches Are Urged Upon Churches for Support

Tonight's sermon of the M. E. Church, South, conference, being held at Spurgeon Memorial Church, will be by Dr. Charles D. Bulla, general secretary of the Wesleyan Adult Bible Class movement of the M. E. Church, South. Dr. Bulla lives at Nashville, Tenn. The meeting tonight will be a Sunday school anniversary, and the address will be a rare treat for all persons interested in Sunday school work.

This morning's business session of the conference was taken up largely with reports of pastors. Reports of the Los Angeles district were completed, and reports from the Arizona district began. Rev. J. N. Kenney, presiding elder of the Los Angeles district, and Rev. S. M. Cheek, presiding elder of the Arizona district, reported that their district are growing. Several new parsonages and new churches have been added.

A number of men appeared before the conference in behalf of various projects needing aid. Bishop Waterhouse urged that the churches take interest in the memorial churches at San Francisco and Oakland, and said that it is hoped to start a church at Berkeley to care for the interests of students at the state university who belong to the M. E. Church, South.

Mrs. Hargrove, widow of Bishop Hargrove, was introduced.

Rev. Stout, presiding elder of the Los Angeles colored M. E. churches, presented the needs of his congregations.

ORANGE COUNTY TAX RATE ONE OF LOWEST IN STATE

Assessment Far Beyond Class of Riverside County—Riverside County $31,000,000; Orange, $48,000,000

But few counties in California have shown the advancement in assessed valuations that Orange County shows for the last three years. Although the county has voted $1,270,000 good roads bonds, its tax rate is remarkably low in comparison with other Southern California counties.

County Assessor James Sleeper has just received from the state controller a statement of values of property, tax rates and indebtedness of each county of the state. Orange County's total assessment, outside of railroads assessed by the State Board of Equalization, is $44,823,265; San Bernardino County, $42,326,597; Riverside County, $26,491,640; San Diego, $71,143,911; Ventura, $27,987,154.

With the railroad assessment, Orange County's total is $48,185,593; San Bernardino, $69,178,742; Riverside, $31,984,516; San Diego, $73,685,684; Ventura, $29,834,747.

From these figures it will be seen that Orange County is getting out of the class of Riverside County, so far as assessment is concerned. Although Orange County with its good roads and other bonds now has an indebtedness of $1,457,000, it has a lower rate than San Bernardino, which has no bonds, Riverside with $150,000 bonds, San Diego with $1,157,000 bonds, and Ventura with $460,000 bonds.

Here are the tax rates: Orange County—Inside cities, $1.05 on each $100 valuation; outside cities, $1.45. San Bernardino—Inside cities, $1.65; outside, $2.20. Riverside—Inside cities, $1.30; outside, $1.90. San Diego—Inside cities, $1.45; outside, $2.10. Ventura—Inside cities, $1.30; outside, $1.60.

Orange County has one of the lowest tax rates in California. Alameda, Kern, Los Angeles, Sutter, Tulare and Yolo have lower rates. Of all the Southern California counties, excepting Los Angeles, Orange County has the lowest tax rate.

Considering the bonded indebtedness—and bonded indebtedness means needed improvements an additional attraction to the county—Orange County's showing is excellent.

REDFIELD WILL THAW INDICTED PROTECT WAGE EARNERS BY NEW YORK GRAND JURY

Repeats Statement that He Others Indicted on Same Charge of Conspiracy—Thaw Will Probe Dismissals of Employees

FLINT, Mich., Oct. 23.—Notice was served on employers of labor last night by Secretary Redfield of the department of commerce that he had not abandoned his intention under certain conditions to investigate general reductions of wages, made under the plea that the new tariff compelled retrenchment. The secretary voiced his views in an address before the Flint Board of Commerce.

Investigation of public utilities corporations, said the secretary, was a line of inquiry his department proposed to begin. The inquiry would be made by the bureau of standards and it would be conducted in a spirit of entire friendliness and with the object in view of aiding both the corporations themselves and the public utilities commissions of the states and cities. Congress is to be asked to appropriate $100,000 to begin the work.

"This fund," explained Redfield, "will be used to enable the bureau of standards to carry on such investigations as would fix standards of service for public utility companies, that would assist the public service commissioners of the states and cities and other authorities in regulation and control of these utilities. There is not suggestion or idea that in this connection the bureau of standards would exercise any legal authority, whatever, no more so than it does in its other scientific standardizing work."

The deal for the sale of the Auditorium was made about two weeks ago, but the transfer was not completed until this week. Fowler is now in charge for Clune.

HOPELESSLY ENTOMBED IN MINE

230 Out of 280 Miners Caught by New Mexico Mine Explosion Are Doomed to Die

14 DEAD AND 23 LIVING ARE TAKEN FROM MINE

Noxious Gas Fills Mine and Prevents Rescue of Others; Sad Scenes at Mine

DAWSON, N. M., Oct. 23.—With giant ventilating fans forcing fresh air into the gas-filled No. 2 Stag Canyon coal mine as fast as the engines can drive them, rescue parties were still working furiously late this afternoon to reach 247 men believed to be imprisoned in the workings. This afternoon three more survivors were found. To reach the surface with them the rescuers would be forced to pass through several gas-filled passages, so they wrapped them in blankets, fed and cared for them where they were found until they could gain more strength. It is admitted there is little likelihood of finding more survivors. The rescuers, however, are determined that every man shall be accounted for.

Coroner Shippe's estimate of the number hopelessly imprisoned was 230. The others, he said, might possibly be saved. He called for all the coffins and embalming fluid to be had in Trinidad.

A throng of weeping and hysterical men, women and children surrounded the mouth of the wrecked mine today, begging for news from their imprisoned relatives inside, employing descending parties of rescuers to save them and begging to be taken into the mine.

DEAD AND LIVING TAKEN TO SURFACE OF EARTH
DAWSON, N. M., Oct. 23.—Fourteen corpses and twenty-three living men had been taken from the Stag Canyon coal mine up to 8 o'clock this morning, out of the entire day shift, estimated at 287 men, entombed by an explosion yesterday afternoon.

Rescue work was proceeding with very cautiously owing to the deadly fumes which fill the mine. The rescuers were all equipped with oxygen helmets and worked in short shifts. The government mine rescue car was started on its way from Denver, Colorado.

Most of the men who were caught in the explosion were Mexicans, but there was a scattering of Americans among them, including General Superintendent Frank McDermott and the mine foreman. Judging from the condition of the mine, which was badly wrecked and which is thick with poisonous gases, it is admitted that but few more rescues among the 250 men still entombed are likely.

General Manager T. H. O'Brien of the wrecked mine is in personal charge of the rescue work. Several rescuers were brought up unconscious from the after-damp. The mine was inspected last week and pronounced safe.

Volunteer rescuers began arriving from every direction soon after the explosion. Striking miners from the Southern Colorado coal fields were among those offering aid. As they are experienced men their assistance was gladly accepted.

MINERS ENTOMBED YESTERDAY AFTERNOON BY EXPLOSION
DENVER, Oct. 23.—Between 230 and 280 miners were entombed by an explosion in the mine No. 2 of the Stag Canyon Fuel Company at Dawson, N. M., at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The entombed men included General Superintendent Frank McDermott of the mine and several other American miners. The cause of the explosion is unknown.

Meager advices received up to 9:45 o'clock last night were that five miners had been taken from the upper levels alive. These reports stated that most of the day shift were employed below the second level, where the shaft was blocked with debris from the explosion.

Accounts from Dawson and Raton were uncertain as to the possibility of rescuing any of the men alive, while a statement issued from the headquarters of the Phelps-Dodge Company at El Paso, Tex., expressed hope that most of the entombed men would be found alive. This belief was based on the fact that the workings of No. 2 mine were connected by a tunnel with mine No. 5, while an air shaft is said to furnish another means of exit.

Immediate relief work was undertaken by men from the night shift and neighboring mines.

Club Meeting

FINGER BOWLS ARE TO BE TABOOED

The Alexandria of Los Angeles Sets Pace for Abolition of Table Fad

Finger bowls are passe, says the Los Angeles Times.

Tomorrow they may be looked upon as relics of barbarism—yesterday they were merely declared taboo.

The Alexandria cafe, McKee's cafe, and others in the city, are trying to struggle along without the little brass receptacles which usually come between coffee and the tip.

The Alexandria really set the pace for the abolition of the finger bowl on the ground that it is a nuisance, more for show than sanitation.

Folks don't eat with their fingers any more.

Then other cafes heard of it and saw a chance to do away with what they say has been more of a joke than a necessity. The finger bowl has been some institution.

Likewise, has the finger bowl been the signal for the tip; but waiters will not miss the signal in future, for they have the diners pretty well trained, so the tip is forthcoming without hint or suggestion.

In some states, it is explained, the finger bowl made of brass or other metal, has been abolished by law.

Glass finger bowls are too costly so some of the more daring restaurateurs cut the finger bowl from the service and shortened the mileage of many waiters.

The finger bowl was once considered the very essence of high tone. It was stylish to dump a dribble of water into a bowl and serve it at the close of the meal, that diners might dip the tips of their fingers into the tiny pool and daintily wipe them on the west border of a napkin. Then, like most everything else started by fashion, the custom became painfully common. Persons imitating wealth arrogated to themselves the right to use finger bowls and soon they were in general use.

Some theories of the invention of the finger bowl lay its origin to the mustache, through which soup is strained; others say common folks got to washing their hands in the finger bowl and using one corner of the tablecloth for a towel. On the other hand, it is said that the finger bowl sprang from necessity, so many persons eating with their fingers, and they could not be expected to let their hands go unwashed at the end of the meal.

At any rate, it will be exceedingly improper to use finger bowls in the future. They are taboo.

SANTA ANA OUGHT TO WIN THE GAME AGAINST REDLANDS

(By Vern Smith.)

By special news from Redlands, the Redlands University football team is badly weakened by the loss of its entire back field. Several men that have been playing positions in the back field for two or three years are out on account of injuries received in the Whittier game. This leaves Coach Cunningham of Redlands in a bad fix. There is nothing but green material from which to develop a back field before next Saturday, and the chances are that when they hit Santa Ana's stone-wall line and systematic defense, its backs will not be worth much.

The fact that Redlands has lost its back field should not make the game uninteresting, however. This will bring the two teams on about the same level and a game better than last Saturday's should result. For speed the chances are the teams will have about an even break. It looks to me that Santa Ana will easily annex another victory to her list next Saturday.

Last night's practice showed "Dutch" Holzgrafe hitting the line like a small cyclone. Whenever the line failed to make a hole for him he generally made one for himself. The two "Spud" brothers are showing up at the two halves like two real stars. Nearly every time the ball is passed to them it means five or ten yards. To hear Cy Eaton call signals you would think West or Tedford was back on the job. Cy possesses the "pep" and "zinger," and he is making good at quarter.

MRS. ANNA M. MOZART

Mrs. Anna M. Mozart of Los Angeles, who presents a high class program of motion pictures of travel and the world's industries on next Friday and Saturday nights and a Sunday afternoon matinee, has voiced her ideas on motion pictures in a good, live, practical way. Mrs. Mozart says that she is positively convinced that the public wants good, clean motion pictures, exempt from crime and gunplay, prison horrors and life in the underworld. No thoughtful mother cares to take her little ones to witness such tragic incidents, as they have wonderful bearing on the undeveloped mind of a child. A great many pictures advertised as "features" are usually made by foreign manufacturers and are lurid and sensational. The worst sense of the word and as a rule are plainly and frankly immoral. They appeal directly to the ignorant, the morbid and the depraved. They are stench in the nostrils of refined people, and degrading to both exhibitor and audience. "From my own experience I have found that I am able to approve of about 60 per cent of the pictures produced, the remaining 40 per cent I consider below the desired standard," said Mrs. Mozart.

"As to the education in motion pictures it really means to cultivate our taste for the beautiful, to soften harsh temperament by awakening tender sympathy, to correct primitive, egotism and avarice and to glimpse history and travel and to nourish and support the best there is in us. "We are essentially a home loving people and our admiration is aroused by views of what is attractive in natural art, and adequate pictures warm and elevate the soul and arouse the human emotions with a softening result on the moral nature of all clean minded people. Such a class of entertainment is needed, and it is one of the few that comes within the reach of the many. It is a blessing when it provides clean, wholesome amusement, comfort, gratification or diversion for the millions whose joys are few and it inspires as well as refreshes them. The esthetic, technical and physical form of education in motion pictures of the higher standard, are already busy, enlightening and cultivating millions of our people who deeply feel the need of variety and recreation."

—The logical thing to do before spending good money for a fine suit or a new gown, is to be fitted to a perfect fitting corset, and then always wear that corset with that suit or gown.

—Much of the complaint that comes as to the fit of suits or dresses is due to the fact that they are fitted or made over an old, worn-out corset, that has lost its shape or lines. Buy your corset first, and see how much more satisfaction you derive from knowing that your suit fits and will stay fitted.

—All our new Fall models are now here in our Corset department. We can fit every figure, and assure perfect satisfaction. Note these well known lines we offer:

ATLANTIC FLEET WILL VISIT THE MEDITERRANEAN SEA SOON

By Burton K. Standish
(Written for the United Press)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—Of far greater significance than a mere visit of courtesy the trip of the Atlantic fleet to the Mediterranean is expected by officers in the navy to demonstrate to Europe two important facts. They are: First, that the ships of the American navy in actual service are in position to hold their own against any European navy outside of England, and that, because of its geographical advantages this country can enjoy the exceptional privilege of sending her sea-fighting force 3,600 miles from home and not feel unsafe.

The fleet will start from Hampton Roads some time this month. Details of the starting are being arranged by Secretary Daniels and Rear Admiral Badger, who will command the expedition. It is possible that President Wilson will witness the departure. Composing the fleet will be twenty battleships—nine of the first and eleven of the second line—in addition to auxiliary craft and colliers. Prior to the departure, there is now being held the ball target practice, which will last some time. The fleet will return to America in time for the Christmas holidays. It is possible that one of the new battleships now building will be added to the fleet before it starts.

According to navy department experts the American armada will be able to show to Europe that in volume of fire and the number of large guns firing broadside, it is superior to the French navy or the combined navy of Austria and Italy, and, in respect to 12-inch guns, to the German navy.

That the trip will be significant in illustrating what naval men style the "American freedom of movement" which renders the American fleet so great a potential factor in foreign affairs, is shown by the fact that not long ago England, with the greatest navy in the world, was compelled to abandon the idea of sending a battle squadron on a cruise to Australia for fear of endangering her position in Europe.

Following its return from the Mediterranean, it is possible that next spring the fleet will make a trip through the Panama canal, provided the full depth of water is in the canal by that time. Just before the formal opening of the canal in 1915, the fleet will again go through, escorting naval vessels of other nations to the Panama-Pacific exposition.

While there may be some changes in the make-up of the Atlantic fleet between now and the time for the Mediterranean cruise the personnel and battleships taking part have all been made up.

Rear Admiral Charles J. Badger will be commander-in-chief of the great fleet. Commander Charles F. Hughes will be chief of his personal staff. The fleet staff will be composed of Surgeon William C. Braisted; Pay Inspector Samuel McGowan; fleet paymaster; Naval Constructor Richard D. Gatewood, and Major of Marines Albertus W. Catlin. The fleet will comprise four divisions which will be commanded by Rear Admirals Cameron McL. Winslow, Frank E. Fletcher, Nathaniel R. Usher, and Frank E. Beatty. The Wyoming, commanded by Capt. F. L. Chapin, will be the flagship of Commander-in-Chief Badger. The other battleships which will participate in the cruise will be: First division—Arkansas, Delaware, Florida, North Dakota, Utah; second division—Louisiana, Michigan, New Hampshire, South Carolina, Vermont; third division—Rhode Island, Georgia, Nebraska, New Jersey, Virginia; fourth division—Minnesota, Idaho, Connecticut, Kansas, Ohio.

The ships named, not counting the colliers and accompanying ships, will represent an approximate gross tonnage of 385,500 tons and 411,720 horsepower. The twenty fighting ships named will carry a total complement of 482 guns.

The financial standing of the maker of your automobile is a vital consideration. The Cole Motor Car Company of Indianapolis has never yet in its history failed to discount a bill. Bradstreet's or Dun's will tell you whether the car you buy can be taken care of by its manufacturer.

These days the prudent business man does not buy sprockets and valves, and wheels and tires—he buys a motor car in its entirety—he buys SERVICE—he buys organization—stability and attractiveness. He buys from an organization whose word he can depend upon. He delegates detail to detail specialists. So should you.

BASEBALL FOR PRISONERS

When the American Prison Association, in session at Indianapolis, got to talking about baseball for prisoners, they did not perhaps realize how much copy they would be making for newspaper paragraphs. The editor can think offhand of two or three quads that would amuse his readers and add sparkle to the paper.

The original idea of a prison was a place where a man was shut up that he might meditate on his sins and resolve to live a better life. About the only recreation was meeting Sundays to sing gospel songs, while the chaplain gave them advice that would be excellent if they would follow it.

But it's a pretty hard proposition to get an abnormal man to become a normal one if during the process he has to live a life that is also abnormal in every particular. You can't get a strong healthy plant by growing it in a cellar where sunshine never penetrates. It will be pale and sickly.

Modern ideas of prison management are tending away from the punitive idea. The conception is more that of separation from the rest of the world. The theory is that these people have proved their unfitness to mingle freely with their fellows. Therefore let them be separated until they learn better. Meanwhile the life should be as nearly normal as it can be without making it attractive to the idle and lazy.

If you work along that theory the idea of baseball and other games in prisons does not seem so absurd. A hearty contest once in a while might do a world of good in betterment to physical health, in checking the inroads of despair on the struggling soul, in making attractive the pursuits that accompany a life of honest work. The privilege of playing such games might well be used as a reward, to be given to men who show an ambition to learn, to work, and to fit themselves for a self-respecting life of honest industry.

MODERN HEROISM

It is often said that the growing scarcity of war is turning people into soft bodied shopkeepers who are losing the gift of physical courage. The story of the Volturno disaster is one of many indications showing that there are plenty of men and women still capable of heroic action. When those life boats approached the fated ship in a violently pitching sea, the men took all kinds of chances of being shipwrecked against the side of the burning vessel.

This may be a sordid age of buying and selling. But every newspaper brings tidings of some man who has plunged into a burning mine, penetrated a gassy sewer, dived under docks, in order to rescue persons in peril. The records of the life saving service in one recent year show 4889 persons in imminent peril through shipwreck, of whom all but 27 were saved by the heroic storm fighters.

Every day people enter hospitals with white faces and set teeth, with little word of complaint or faltering for critical operations which they know may be fatal. Millions of people are carrying around with them diseases which they know constitute a death warrant.

People know too much about their interior workings and face death cheerily for years with a stout heart. The happy-go-lucky doctoring of former days did not save life so long, but it left people in a happier unconcern about their fate.

So modern life brings its specters that are just as fearsome as the incessant warfare of yore. That human courage still persists is shown by such catastrophes as the Titanic and Volturno disasters. Cowardice appears here and there. But probably when the much vaunted colonists of earlier days were fighting Indians so merrily they left at home a vast body of poltroons who had no stomach for battle.

WALNUT MEN IN MIDST OF THE SEASON

Anaheim Association's Plant

Busy Handling New Crop

Much Damage Done to Nuts by

Weather and

Insect

Anaheim Gazette: Notwithstanding the fact that this season's walnut crop in this section and throughout the entire walnut district will fall short a normal yield possibly 25 per cent, the packing house of the Anaheim Walnut Growers' Association on Claudina street near the Southern Pacific railroad is a busy place this week. Archer Fay, who had charge of the plant last season, is in control again and an ample force of men is engaged to take care of the incoming wholesale customers who distribute them to the consumers throughout the entire United States.

Ten thousand tons of walnuts will be shipped from California this season, which is a shortage of 2500 tons from the estimated crop. The Anaheim Walnut Association estimates its shipment at three hundred tons, practically 25 per cent below the expected yield for the season.

Another drawback which is cutting down the revenue of the walnut grower in this extraordinary season is the quality of the nut. Up to the present time not a sack of No. 1 soft shells has been marketed. While there will probably be some, first-class nuts brought in before the season ends on November 20, none have yet appeared and all that have been shipped so far were graded No. 2.

The principal reason for this delinquency of course was the extremely hot weather early in September just as the nuts were ripening, but the deadly aphid which attacked the trees earlier in the season is responsible for a good proportion of the damage. That pestiferous insect cut short the crop and the extreme heat damaged the quality. It is also responsible for considerable extra expense as the cost of gathering is higher to many growers owing to the difficulty of removing the dried hull.

Prices this year are higher than for four years past, which will minimize the loss from weather conditions considerably. The Southern California Walnut Growers' Association in session at Los Angeles on Saturday, October 4, fixed the price at 16 cents per pound for No. 1 soft shells, 13 1/2 cents for No. 1 hard shells, 19 cents for banded walnuts and 11 1/2 cents for No. 2. With these prices prevailing it is estimated that, notwithstanding the shortage and damage, Orange county will receive nearly a million and a quarter dollars for its walnut crop this season. The banded crop, which brings the top-notch price, is expected to be larger than last year owing to the growth of new orchards.

The Anaheim Walnut Growers' Association is composed of 75 members of Anaheim, Fullerton and Placentia walnut sections. The prices secured by the association will range from 2 to 3 cents higher than those paid by independent buyers.

Extra men are employed at the packing plant this season assisting in the cull work. The nuts on arrival are passed through a saline solution for the purpose of bleaching before being shipped. Mr. Fay expects to wind up the season on or about the 20th of November.

GIRLS! DRAW A MOIST CLOTH THROUGH HAIR

Try This! Hair Gets Thick, Glossy, Wavy and Beautiful at Once

Immediate?—Yes! Certain?—That's the joy of it. Your hair becomes light, wavy, fluffy, abundant and appears as soft, lustrous and beautiful as a young girl's after a Danderine hair cleanse. Just try this—moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt, or excessive oil, and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair. A delightful surprise awaits those whose hair has been neglected or is scraggy, faded, dry, brittle or thin. Besides beautifying the hair, Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff, cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair growing all over the scalp. If you care for pretty, soft hair, and lots of it, surely get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter and just try it—Advertisement.

CHARMING AFFAIR

Mrs. H. T. Duckett Hostess at One of Prettiest of Autumn Social Functions

Especially beautiful were the Hallowe'en decorations used by Mrs. H. T. Duckett in adorning her house for the delightful party she gave yesterday afternoon. Golden rods in feathery sprays were massed in baskets of brown in the living room, artistically placed in corners and occupied a place of honor on the piano. Big white chrysanthemums in all their fluffy beauty were employed in the den, and in the dining room were velvety marigolds, those dear old fashioned flowers glorified by culture but still suggestive of quaint gardens and memories of olden days.

Progressive whist was the diversion offered to the guests and the fascinating game was played with spirit by the thirty or more guests responding to Mrs. Duckett's invitations. The first prize, a beautiful lunch cloth done in punch work by the clever fingers of the hostess, was won by Mrs. E. S. Gilbert. A handsome prize, was cut for by Mrs. Malone and Mrs. Kenton, the former winning on the cut. Mrs. Terry Stephenson was given a "blotter" book for consolation, her score card bearing the unlucky number, "13."

The games over and prizes awarded, Mrs. Duckett, assisted by Mrs. P. G. Beissel, distributed the very cunning sort of yellow crepe paper bonnets of approved mob shape, be-ruffled and be-crowned, the crowns being gay with designs of black witches emerging from Hallowe'en pumpkins. The ladies were asked to don the bonnets and take a stroll around the corner. Filled with the spirit of adventure, the ladies eagerly followed their guides, who were altogether bewitching in their bonnets of yellow, as they led the way out of the house and "around the corner" to the home of Mrs. M. C. Kenton. As the door was hospitably opened to admit the wondering guests a fairy-like scene was revealed, the rooms fairly glowing with the soft yellow tints that radiated from gold-en-hued pumpkins and sumptuous marigolds and yellow shaded electric lights. Small tables were placed about the rooms in this unique environment, and on each table was a centerpiece of a shining, scooped-out pumpkin overflowing with marigolds. The yellow-bonneted guests took their places at the inviting tables and were served with a most delectable repast in which the yellow and white

Well Known Story-Teller to Narrate Two Arabian Nights Stories

The program for the Ebell Society Saturday afternoon at Elks' hall will be something a little extraordinary, and promises to be very entertaining. Mr. Stephan Schutze, whose art as a story-teller is well known in club and literary circles, will give two of the delightful stories from "The Arabian Nights." There will be an Oriental stage setting, and Mr. Schutze appears in Oriental costume. A program of music specially chosen to be in keeping with the stories and general environment will be given by Mrs. A. J. Padgham, Miss Kassa Bailey and Mrs. Arnold Peck.

The meeting will be called to order at 2:15 o'clock instead of at 2:30 o'clock. Mrs. Lillian Pray Palmer, president of the southern district of the federation, and Mrs. George Butler, district chairman of club extension work, will be present.

tints of the decorative color scheme were evident in the ices, and the Hallowe'en motif in the yellow mints adorned with cunning faces in brown. Mrs. Duckett and Mrs. Beissel, petite and charming in their mob caps of yellow, were ideal Hallowe'en Maids as they served the dainties of the two course collation.

Mrs. Duckett was overwhelmed with compliments on the success of her altogether lovely party, the invited list for which included Mesdames George Briggs, F. H. Case, F. B. Case, T. E. Eriksen, J. P. Hatfield, L. J. Carden, J. E. Paul, J. P. Baumgartner, J. W. Shaul, M. C. Kenton, Will Spurgeon, E. S. Gilbert, J. H. Turner, W. A. Flood, Geo. Wells, Roscoe Whitfield, L. L. Whitson, F. C. ## NORTHCROSS-THOMAS

Wedding of Unusual Interest Solemnized Yesterday at J. D. Thomas Home

A wedding of more than ordinary local interest was that of Miss Hazel Corinne Thomas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joel Downer Thomas, and Marshall Northcross, Jr., solemnized at the home of the bride yesterday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock.

To the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, played by Mrs. Harry Hanson, the beautiful bride came down the stairs on her father's arm. They were preceded by the bride's sister, Miss Lena Thomas, who led the way down the ribbon-formed aisle to a bower of greenery in the living-room. Here they were met by the groom, his best man, Dan Thomas, a brother of the bride, and Rev. B. C. Corey of Orange, who performed the ceremony, using the ring service of the Episcopal church. The ceremony was witnessed by about seventy-five guests.

Yellow chrysanthemums were lavishly employed in decoration throughout the house. The decoration of the bower where the ceremony was pronounced was specially pleasing in effect, the green background of a garland of yellow chrysanthemums being relieved at intervals by clusters of shaggy, yellow chrysanthemums. Bows of the same majestic flowers were seen elsewhere about the rooms, and on the mantle in the living room where they were combined with massed maidenhair ferns.

The bride, who is of the semi-brunette type and a young woman of unusual beauty, wore an exquisite creation of white crepe and tulle lace made en train. Her dark hair was crowned with a veil becomingly arranged with a tiny wreath of lilies of the valley and clasped with a diamond ornament. She carried a shower bouquet of white rose buds and lilies of the valley. Miss Lena Thomas, the maid of honor, was attractive in a gown of white net made over yellow accordion pleated chiffon. She wore a mob cap of shadow lace over yellow and carried yellow chrysanthemum.

Mrs. Thomas, the mother of the bride, wore a handsome lavender gown of embroidered crepe. Marion Thomas Haugh, a small cousin of the bride, and Mary Rebecca Parker, niece of the groom, were the bewitching ribbon bearers. They received silver spoons for their pretty services.

Delicious refreshments carrying out the yellow and white color scheme were served, the Dragon catering and serving. After refreshments and congratulations and the viewing of the wedding gifts, an array of beautiful things suitable for the new home and embracing an order for a piano, the gift of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas, the newly wedded couple were taken to Los Angeles in an automobile by Mr. and Mrs. Abe Stutsman. The bride's going-away suit was a modish one of purple silk poplin and broadcated velvet with trimmings of fur and hat to match. Her bouquet was captured by Miss Lois Tedford. After a short wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Northcross will go to their home on Stephenson avenue, Pasadena, the groom being established in the landscape gardening business in that city.

The marriage of yesterday was the culmination of a pretty romance begun in high school days. Both of the young people are well known and popular here. The bride is considered one of Santa Ana's fairest daughters, her beauty, which has been widely admired, being enhanced by a sunny disposition which has made her much sought after in the social circles of the city.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Northcross of Orange, whose family, like that of the bride, is counted as one of the old families of Orange county.

The out-of-town guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Bolt, Pasadena; Mrs. I. B. Winslow and Miss Bates, Pasadena; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Haugh, Virginia; and Marion Haugh, Los Angeles; Mr. Mac Northcross, Mrs. Harriet Parker, Marshall, Julia and Mary Rebecca Parker, Pasadena; Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Northcross, Miss Lucy Northcross, Miss Caldwell, Orange; Mr. and Mrs. John Joplin, Rebecca and Boyd Joplin, Tustin; Mrs. Grace Frees, Ben Frees, Los Angeles; Miss Dorothy Duncan, Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. Abe Stutsman, Los Angeles.

Celebrated Birthday
G. P. Campbell's birthday was pleasantly celebrated last evening by a small, informal gathering at the Campbell home, planned by his wife. A list was played, humorous score cards being used in marking. Yellow chrysanthemums and ferns were used in adorning the house.

Mrs. Frank Worden won first prize, a book, Tennyson's "Holly," and "Life's Roses," another book, went to Mrs. Merigold. Music was a feature of the evening. Refreshments were served on a table decorated in such a way as to suggest Hallowe'en.

The evening's guests were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Worden, Mr. and Mrs. Will Merigold, Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Beissel, and Ed. Vegely.

The gentlemen of the party presented Mr. Campbell with a box of choice cigars.

Travel Club Meeting

Sick Headache or Sour Stomach Means Sluggish Liver and Bowels

Get a 10-cent box now. Furred Tongue, Bad Taste, Indigestion, Sallow Skin and Miserable Headaches come from a torpid liver and clogged bowels, which cause your stomach to become filled with undigested food, which sours and ferments like garbage in a still barrel. That's the first step to untold misery—indigestion, foul gases, bad breath, yellow skin, mental fears, everything that is horrible and nauseating. A Cascaret tonight will give your constipated bowels a thorough cleansing and straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist will keep you feeling good for months. Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then to keep their stomach, liver and bowels regulated, and never know a miserable moment. ## FINE QUALITY AND PROSPECT

Fruit Growers' Exchange Prepares for Marketing Season Crop

Manager Powell Reports that Florida Crop is Largest in History

Los Angeles Times: In the face of a record Florida citrus crop and an adverse tariff outlook optimism of the constructive variety made itself apparent yesterday at the California Fruit Growers' Exchange directorate meeting, when General Manager Powell's recommendation that all eastern agencies for the coming year be re-established was approved without dissenting vote. This was the first meeting of the exchange's directorate since Powell's return Sunday from a two-months' investigation of marketing conditions in the East.

The exchange, through its directorate, further pledged itself to an extended advertising campaign to make "Sunland" and "Red Ball" names of assured quality in the citrus world. This campaign will be carried through the fifty-four major agencies, scattered from the Atlantic to the Rockies, as well as through the newspapers and other advertising channels. Powell reported that the Florida crop is the largest in history, 7,000,000 to 8,000,000 boxes, the expected competition from that state no uncertain quality, thanks to action of the Department of Agriculture, which has made Florida growers past-masters in selection and co-operative marketing. Shelly has an average crop, Powell further reported, though he peremptorily refused, both at the meeting and afterwards, to discuss the possible effects of the tariff.

Nevertheless, Powell's assertion that the fine quality and splendid texture of California's coming citrus crop will cause the fruit to meet with the approval of discriminating buyers in the East the coming winter and spring, was deemed sufficient evidence by the exchange's directors for the rehiring of all agency employees. Powell, in support of his arguments, presented reports from practically every existing agency showing an "exaggerated" market for California fruit.

Of first importance was Powell's report showing that the exchange last year marketed but 54 per cent of a normal crop in the East, but realized a money return of 82 per cent. "The exchange returned $13,500,000 to its members for last year's crop," said Powell, "after deducting a 2 per cent marketing cost, the minimum marketing cost for any agricultural product in the country."

Powell's estimate on the coming citrus crop of the state varied but little from estimates made by him some months ago. It was: Lemons, 4,000 to 4,500 cars; Valencia, 8,000 cars, and navel, 25,000 to 27,000 cars.

Regarding the present high price of lemons, Powell stated that the short crop of this state had been imperfectly offset by large importations from Europe, with the result that the lemon supply throughout the East had averaged 17 per cent below that of former years.

AMUSEMENTS

"Officer 666" That the tastes of the large army of amusement seekers in America are leaning more and more toward plays of a farcical nature, is the belief of nearly every firm of theatrical producers. The public wants to be amused rather than instructed, is the way they figure the situation, and the present season would seem to bear out this opinion. Take the hits of the New York stage during the past season. Ninety per cent of them were musical farces, comedy dramas, straight farces or musical plays, all constructed with the one idea—to create laughter.

In "Officer 666," which will be presented at the Grand Opera House Sunday, October 26, 1913, is found a farce that contains all these desirable attributes. It was written by Augustin MacHugh, an author heretofore unknown to fame as a playwright.

"Motograph at the Grand" "Egypt as it was in the time of Moses," a subject of high order, is one of the pictures in the series that is a notable addition to the list of educational pictures to be seen at the Grand Opera House Friday and Saturday of this week. A clear idea of the manner in which the natives of Egypt have labored for thousands of years is given in this picture and it is said that the cartoons have not changed any since the time of Moses. The processes pictured are identical with those mentioned in the Bible; in fact, the beginning of these methods dates back thousands of years before the time of Moses.

Another picture in the series, and of a lighter vein, that is sure to please, is the "Dances of the Various Countries." Possibly the most graphic of all the films are those showing the birds, their nests and habits. Artistically, the culture and birth of the flower film is perhaps the most fascinating. The unfolding of the bud into the flower in full bloom is magnificent. Bewildering in their beauty are the faces of the pansies, each one with a story in its own face.

Other things you are to see on this cinematograph trip is a bit of old Ireland. The buffalo hunt in India, China, will produce any number of thrills and at the same time answer the question so frequently asked by children, "How did they catch the wild animals, now in captivity?"

Mirror Theater There will be a real treat in store for lovers of adventure and natural history when the marvelous Carnegie Alaska-Siberia Moving Pictures will be seen at the Mirror Theater Oct. 23 and 24.

These wonderful pictures were taken by Capt. Kleinwachter, the fearless Arctic big game hunter, who has spent the greater part of his life among the Eskimos in the land of the Midnight Sun. The camera shows this most daring tribe of Eskimos at work and at play, harpooning walrus, stalking the ponderous polar bear or pursuing the human-like seal. This unique figure of the North is always interesting. A moose hunt in Alaska is among the very interesting and thrilling scenes shown by the camera. The great monarch of the twilight land's jungles is seen almost within arm's reach of the camera, wounded and at bay in a dense fastness. Herds of mountain goats scouring across the bleak crags of an Arctic range, primitive railroading in Alaska, totem poles of a hundred or more weird and fantastic designs, manau harnessed to a plow and other remarkable pictures are shown on the screen. One of the most interesting scenes shows a barren island in the center of Behring Sea. Precipitous walls of rock 500 feet high shut the granite waste from the sea.

A GENTLE AND EFFECTIVE LAXATIVE A mild, gentle and effective laxative is what people demand when suffering from constipation. Thousands swear by Dr. King's New Life Pills. Bucklen & Co., Philadelphia or St. Louis."

NO GOLD MINE SO SUIT ON

Frank Fry Says Dr. Tizzard Got the Coin But No Mine

Some kind of a gold mining proposition, the details of which are not given, found its way into the superior court today when Attorneys Scarborough & Forgy filed a complaint for Frank Fry against Dr. S. B. Tizzard.

The story as recited in the complaint is brief. Dr. Tizzard received $1075 from Fry, to pay for shares in a gold mine company that Dr. Tizzard agreed to organize. Dr. Tizzard should have had development work done by Oct. 19, 1912, but did not. So Fry sues to get his money back. He also sues as assignee of T. N. Barnett, who has a claim of $75 against Dr. Tizzard.
